Course Competition: That Majola Magic

Keywords: Financial literacy, Life lessons, Human drama

That Majola Magic course competition takes readers on a journey with the Majola family. It has been a year and a half since the Majola family laid the tombstone on the grave of Grace Majola - beloved wife to Baba and mother to Themba, Samke and Busi. A lot has happened in that time. Baba has retired, Samke's salon business has grown, Busi has finished her coding course and is an intern at The Data Company and, last but not least, Themba and Lerato are going to get married... Find out what happens and learn some life lessons along the way too.

This course competition sponsored by Momentum Metropolitan Foundation. It is only open to people over the age of 18 years who live in South Africa. Please read the full Terms and Conditions here before signing up. The course competition closes at midnight on 30 May 2021.
